2nd Fur Shopping Festival

Visitors to the 2nd Fur Shopping Festival are in for an unforgettable three days this November from the 3rd to the 5th of the month in Kastoria. The event is organized by the Kastoria Fur Association.

A total of 97 business from the fur sector in Kastoria, Siatista and cities outside Greece will be exhibiting thousands of fur products at the cutting edge of the fur fashion that will be worn in the 2017-18 Winter Season, all stamped with the seal of quality Greek fur.

At the same time visitors will be able to find a wide variety of fur accessories, as well as shoes and home décor items with fur details.

Other businesses outside the exhibition area will also be participating in the 2nd Fur Shopping Festival, in addition to restaurants and hotels, creating a festive atmosphere in the city of furriers. Another attraction will be the large air balloon that will be taking visitors on air tours so they can have the opportunity to admire the unique beauty of the region.

Like last year, side events will not be missing from this year's festival. Concerts will be held in the specially designed lounge area of the International Exhibition Center of Kastoria, the perfect place for the participants to relax.

Some of the music events include the duet Clara Myroforidou (vocals) and Bambis Prodromidis (saxophone), who will perform Greek and foreign hits on Friday, November 3, and on the next evening, we will have the opportunity to enjoy Fortissimo, an amazing electric string quartet, which combines classical music with pop, rock and latin genres on Saturday, November 4.

The Fur Shopping Festival is co-organized by the KASTORIAN FUR ASSOCIATION, TIF-HELEXPO and the Western Macedonia Region while the event is sponsored by NAFA, Copenhagen Fur, Saga Furs, American Legend, the Kastoria Municipality and the Tourism Organization of Western Macedonia.
